General Manager's MESSAGE

John Danehy, General Manager
419-254-2988 | jdanehy@toledoclub.org

Dear Members,

The Club's annual "re-beautification" took place August 20 through September 5 this year. Many members have asked me "What goes on during that two-week period?" I thought I'd take this time to explain what typically occurs.

Many loyal Toledo Club employees take this time for their well-deserved vacations. Traditionally this is the slowest time of the year, activity-wise, for the Club. Many have worked through all the holidays to provide their outstanding service for Club members, and this is their time for a rest. Others will work during the enhancement period. Bartenders, servers and cooks will don their old clothes, pick up rags and buckets and lend a hand to our maintenance team. Lots of much-needed cleaning and repairing will take place.

Our Club maintenance team, led by Facilities Director Brian McCarty, will tackle many projects, such as draining and repairing pool drains and filters. Our pool will also be cleaned and sanitized during the period. Once those projects are completed, the pool will be refilled, chemically balanced and heated. Once that process is completed, we will welcome back our swimmers.

The Club's steam boilers will be drained, fire tubes cleaned and state-inspected. A combustion analysis will be performed to ensure optimal performance. Many Club lighting and electrical issues will be addressed.

Plaster repairs and touch-up painting from earlier repaired leaks will take place in the Founders Dining Room and second-floor hallway. Many plumbing repairs will be made. Water service to the whole building will be shut off to facilitate some of those repairs.

HVAC units will have their coils cleaned and all air filters replaced. Satellite service kitchens will have their floors repainted and sealed. The flooring behind the Club's bars will be repainted.

Our office staff will be busy upgrading our Club software during this time. New banquet menus and à la carte dining menus will also be developed.

As you can see, this is a very important time of the year for your Club. Thank goodness we have such a great maintenance team to get this work done in this short time frame.

September brings a great re-opening of the Founders Dining Room on the 3rd floor for à la carte dining: breakfast, lunch and dinner will be available Wednesday through Friday (and some Tuesday evenings when there are no special event dinners). For this dining concept to be sustainable, we need your support in the form of reservations. The FDR will continue to host Toledo Club dining events such as First Tuesdays, ZIPZ Dinners, Wine & Dine dinners and other popular events. Please, let's pack the room! The Founders have been lonely staring at an empty room for some time now.

Our Sunday Brunch is back! It will be every second Sunday of the month, starting September 10. Also returning are the Turkey Buffets (every fourth Tuesday of the month, starting September 26, and Seafood Buffets (the first one is Friday, September 15).

Great things are happening at The Toledo Club. Be part of the fun—make your reservations today!

President's MESSAGE

Doug Kearns, President

Dear Toledo Club Member,

What a busy summer it has been at the Club, having just had our "Reimagine An Icon Toledo Club 2025" membership meeting on June 21st. Blink and you'd have missed a couple of First Tuesdays, a ZIPZ dinner, another outstanding Party in the Parking Lot (see page 10 for photos and a thank-you to our sponsors), and a fun going-away party for Eddie and Emma Charlton, plus plenty of other great events in between. Suddenly summer is already winding down, just as our Club fundraising and membership drive campaigns are heating up.

Speaking of the Club's fundraising and membership drive, both are off to a solid start. I would like to start by thanking all of the members that have already completed and returned their pledge cards, as well as those that have already provided Ashley Jordan, our membership director, a new member prospect. A list of all of these members helping lead this campaign are listed on this page. The early pledges and helping us grow our membership are both critical to moving the project forward. If you have not already done so, now is the time to re-review the materials that were sent out and to schedule a time to meet with any member of the Board of Directors or fundraising committee to answer your questions and get "on board."

One other highlight to mention is the Club being featured in a special video series about conservation easements on buildings of historic significance throughout the State of Ohio. The video showcase is being produced by Heritage Ohio and will show footage around the Club, along with interviews with me and Club GM John Danehy. While in Toledo, Historic Ohio also performed the required annual facility walk-through. They were very excited to hear more of the details on the plans for the Club's Phase I facility project that they are completely behind, and will be providing guidance throughout the renovation process.

One other housekeeping item is to set the date for our annual Club membership meeting. It will be held on Monday, October 23—please mark your calendars. The official invite will follow in the upcoming weeks.

By the time you're reading this, hopefully you have enjoyed the Labor Day weekend and your last few weeks of summer, while the Club has had, as I like to say, its annual "re-beautification" from August 20 through September 5. I am looking forward to welcoming back everyone for an exciting fall/winter season at the Club. As you'll see on the page 2 and center calendars, we're bringing back many long-time favorite dining events. Please make your reservations early and often!

All the best,

Doug

Club Squashers in the UK This Summer

Compiled by Dave Karmol

Squash was played, tea was consumed, pubs were visited, and a grand time was had by all during the group's summer trip to the UK.

Making the trip were: Nate Baird, John and Laurie Leslie, Tim Kalucki, Jeff Levesque, Andy Ranazzi, Kathy Mikolajczak, Drew Snell, Ian Andrews, Adilson Jardim, and Angelo Jardim.

represented the good name of The Toledo Club and its athletics program to our good friends across the pond. If global geopolitics were left to squash clubs instead of politicians, The Toledo Club just solved most of the world's problems, except perhaps the nutritional value of British fish and chips, and mushy peas!

This past July, eleven Toledo Club squash players put aside their regular schedules to take a trip to England organized by the Club's previous squash pro, Eddie Charlton, who was born (and achieved prominence playing squash) in Great Britain. When they landed in London Saturday morning, they found Eddie had arranged for a whirlwind tour of England, from the popular sights of London to the seaside town of Torquay, a popular summer venue for Brits on what's referred to there as the "English Riviera." The group was treated to sightseeing during the days, and then invigorating squash matches in the evening, capped off by visits to various pubs or hosted events at some of the squash clubs they visited. In London they played at London-Wimbledon Rackets Club (where the tennis finals of Wimbledon were being played ten minutes away) and the Roehampton Club. They saw London's iconic sights: Buckingham Palace, the London Bridge, St. Paul's Cathedral, and the Museum of Modern Art. They spent a glorious evening at the Globe Theatre, where they took in Shakespeare's hilarious yet poignant A Comedy of Errors.

Exeter Country Club, and got a chance to see, and swim in, the English Channel. In between, they stopped in Bristol for a squash lesson with the world-famous coach Hadrian Stiff.

Andy Ranazzi summed up the trip with a list of H's: "First there was Hospitality. We never wanted for anything anywhere we went. One of our rather fashionable members forgot his shorts so he played in compression shorts. A new fashion trend was established, and soon compression short squash will be all the rage in Europe and at home. We forgot shoes... no worries: the pro at one of the clubs offered his shoes. Next was Humility. They beat us on their courts—handily. A few exceptions (Nate, Kathy and always Eddie), but for the most part they got the better of us. I went 0-5 but if you talked with any of my perfect gentleman opponents, they would describe my spirited play with positive words (like spirited), and told me they got lucky. Each one of them would be my best friend if I'd gotten left behind (which some of the group favored!). Next was Honor. I have never participated in an endeavor such as this, where everyone, those known to us for over a decade and those we just met, acted so politely and honorably. Truly a site to behold. Lastly, and most importantly, Humor. They had a laugh with us, and we had a million laughs back." 🍷

If squash is life and life is good, then several Toledo Club members truly had the time of their lives in England this July. They trained with the best coaches in the world—well, at least one—saw the best players in the world—well, at least three—but, just as importantly,

While in Torquay, the group played at Newton Abbot Squash Club and Devon

IN THEIR OWN WORDS:

Ian Andrews:

“Shakespeare’s A Comedy of Errors, all about weary travelers, mistaken identities, rekindled friendships and long-lost-but-ultimately-reunited families, perfectly encapsulated the England trip and what it means to travel abroad to unfamiliar places and return home tired, but inspired by a whole host of newly created relationships.”

Andy Ranazzi:

“The politeness and accommo-dating nature of the English people was infectious. It made you a better, nicer version of yourself, and who among us can’t use a little of that? There are few places on this earth where I have ever felt like the round peg for the ROUND hole...this was one of them.”

Nate Baird:

“One of my favorite experiences was swimming in the English Channel in Torquay. It was freezing, but with all the walking and squash we were playing, my legs appreciated the cold water!”

Squash NEWS

By Rich Effler

It has been an eventful summer for Toledo Club squash. We capped another great TC squash season with an incredible Finals Night followed by a very special visit from former World Champion Greg Gaultier. What we didn’t know at the time is that we would soon be saying goodbye to a dear friend, our beloved squash pro Eddie Charlton. While we will miss Eddie, Emma, Harry and Jesse, we will also look back on their time at The Toledo Club fondly and cherish the impact that Eddie made on our program.

Andy Ranazzi summed up the thoughts of the Toledo Club squash players: “A very good friend of ours is moving up in the world and doing right by his family, while at the same time giving us a the lion’s share of the last four years of his life... We won’t wish him good luck because he’ll be an unbridled success without it! We have the greatest squash league in the history of fire. It is truly a beautiful thing that for sure can be better. However, the foundation built by us with Eddie’s help is strong, fun and Club-sustaining...”

A big part of that foundation has been the addition of another squash professional to our club, Tron Torres. Tron has served as Eddie’s assistant for the past year and has done an impressive job stepping up in his absence. He lives, eats and breathes Toledo Club Squash,

An event at the Club on July 31 allowed members to bid farewell to the Charltons. The family headed off to St. Louis the next day.

and is a ball of positive energy, constantly coming up with new ideas and ways to improve our program. As I write this, Tron, along with two other incredibly strong finalists, is interviewing for the Head Squash Pro position. No matter the outcome of that process, Tron is committed to Toledo Club Squash for the foreseeable future. We are very fortunate to have him on our team! Turn the page for more about Tron.

NEWBIE BRACKET HIGHLIGHTS THE 2023 FALL FEST

As we look forward to the 2023-24 season, our fourth annual Fall Fest tournament is right around the corner. An event that was created in 2020 has become a mainstay on our squash calendar and now unofficially marks the start of Squash Season at the Toledo Club. This year’s event is on Friday, October 13 and Saturday, October 14.

While the weekend features competitive tournament play for all skill levels and a select pro exhibition, it is highlighted by our Newbie Bracket. Anyone new to squash who is not currently a member of The Toledo Club is welcome and encouraged to participate in the tournament with a free one-year membership for both the men’s and women’s champions on the line! Entrants in the Newbie Bracket are also welcomed to the Club on a few “squash introduction” evenings in the weeks leading up to the tournament. Some of you reading this surely played as a newbie and, champion or not, you caught the “squash bug” and couldn’t leave! There is no better way to share that experience than to invite someone you know to jump into the Newbie Bracket. If you have anyone in mind, don’t hesitate to let Tron or anyone on the Squash Committee know! Mark your calendars and help us fill the brackets for Fall Fest!

Squash Pro Seetreeon “Tron” Torres is MAKING A NAME for HIMSELF

by Dave Karmol

Unlike the main character of the cult favorite action flick Tron, our assistant squash coach Tron did not materialize inside of a mainframe computer to do battle with evil forces. But the story of how Tron got from his hometown of the Bronx, New York City, to Toledo is almost as amazing as the story of the 80s movie character.

Tron is a nickname, but since it is about as close as you can get to an abbreviation of his given name, Seetreeon, he’s embraced it since it was pinned on him years ago by a high school friend. But you have to go back a few years before his high school days to learn how Tron got involved with squash. As an inner city kid attending sixth grade in the Bronx, Tron Torres was eligible to sign up for an after-school program called “CitySquash” (find it on Facebook at facebook.com/citysquash). Out of 110 students who signed up, he was one of 12 who made it on to the CitySquash team. CitySquash is a non-profit organization set up to provide an afterschool program for kids that revolves around squash, and is hosted by Fordham University, a highly-rated Jesuit college located in the Bronx. The kids are coached and learn the game on the squash courts at Fordham, and play other teams in the New York area.

Tron was a standout squash player in the CitySquash program, and his performance and drive earned him a full scholarship to Trinity-Pawling Prep School in Pawling, NY, about 60 miles north of the city. Trinity-Pawling is an exclusive, all-boys private boarding school, with a total enrollment of under 300 students and a highly individualized program of instruction with an average class size of 10 students. More importantly, Trinity has one of the best private school squash programs in New York, if not nationwide, with five pristinely maintained squash courts dedicated in 2000, funded by a '59 Trinity graduate. At Trinity, Tron again was a great squasher, but now playing with a team that included some of the best young squash players in the country. His team at Trinity made it to two national competitions and several regional events, while he played for the Trinity "Pride." They were a top team in the league of boarding schools, and Tron was one of the top one or two players at the school.

From Trinity, Tron qualified for a New York Higher Education Opportunity Scholarship, and attended St. Lawrence University, where he was able to up his game again. While there, he played with a great team, and competed in matches against excellent teams from such schools as Harvard, Navy and MIT. The St. Lawrence team finished Tron's senior year with a 13-4 record and came in second in the national championship. Tron was recognized with the Coaches Award his senior year, as well.

After St. Lawrence, Tron was hired as squash coach at a private club in Lakeforest, IL. From there he was recruited to coach for a program called MetroSquash, a program for inner city grade school kids on the south side of Chicago. The new position brought his young career full circle to the type of program that had introduced Tron to squash back in the Bronx in sixth grade. At MetroSquash he worked for the squash director, a world-ranked squash professional from England named Emma Charlton (spoiler alert!). Apparently, Emma was impressed with Tron's abilities, attitude and overall personality, because after she and her husband Eddie moved to Toledo for Eddie to take the job as squash professional at The Toledo Club, a year or two later, Tron got a call from Eddie.

The way Tron relates the story, Eddie said: "I'm looking for an assistant pro. I know you are not a big fan of private clubs, but I think you'll like it here where I'm working at The Toledo Club." And the rest is history, as Tron came to the Club to be our assistant pro and is now serving as interim pro until Eddie's replacement is chosen. Whether or not he becomes the pro, Tron says he loves The Toledo Club, and plans to stay. Everyone I've talked to is glad to hear it. 🎾

Tron coached his MetroSquash team to Team Nationals in Philadelphia in 2017.

80s Welcome Back Party on the Patio

by Eileen Eddy

Alas, the Summer of 2023 is over. But the good news is, the Club opens again, so it's time to come back to the Club and return to the 1980s! Okay, some of us are old enough to remember, some are not, some of you weren't even born yet. But you must agree the 80s was a pretty cool decade. I mean, tubular, man!

Remember or not, the Club is going to revisit the 80s, and it's a chance to relive some good times (or find out what the decade was like). An awesome night of big hair, fun music and good food. You don't have to dress the part, but there'll be a prize for the person that best personifies the 80s and for the best 80s celebrity look-alike!

MUSIC in the 80s was colorful and new. There was music we hadn't experienced before, new wave and punk were huge, and heavy metal and classic rock were still going strong. New music was coming on the radio daily, while MTV made music come alive. Old styles like rockabilly became new again with the sound being revived by groups like The Stray Cats and The Blasters.

FOOD prior to the 80s had been pretty simple, but suddenly the entire country embraced Tex-Mex, margaritas and frozen yogurt. So, guess what we're having? Chef is putting together a Mexican buffet; the margarita machine is coming out of the mothballs, and a frozen yogurt truck will be on hand.

STYLE was another important part of the 80s. Prior to the 80s there seemed to be a general sense of style for each decade.

Sure it was different for each age group, but a definite style was followed by most. Then the Reagan 80s brought elegance to the forefront, the Yuppie appeared, suits for all, and colleges were filled with preppies (oh, my God Biffy, you don't have an alligator on your polo!). Then punk hit the fringe and the new wave style was grasped by masses of youth. Color exploded in neon, while even moms sported intensely colored workout gear and got perms. Then hair got bigger and bigger. I remember a guy saying he had to have a sunroof so he could get his sister's bangs in the car.

Sure, there were some bad things. Iran held American citizens hostage at the start of the decade, but we did tear down the Berlin Wall. Overall, I think we were a little less uptight. And did I mention the music was great?

So, come back to the Club and back to the 80s, wear what you did then, or, if you were an uptight Yuppie that really, deep down, wanted to wear Doc Martins and puffy skirts, or the guy that wanted to sport a leather jacket with chains, this is your chance to actually do it! So get out that can of Aqua Net and blow your own little hole in the ozone, or just come as your usual self, enjoy the great food and music, and see what the others come up with. Remember, we'll have a prize for the best 80s look overall, and one for the best 80s celebrity look-alike.

Any way you look at it, great CLUB, good FOOD, good MUSIC = BIG FUN. It'd be grody to the max if you missed it!

ZIPZ NEWZ

Key West ZIPZ Dinner

September 19 | 6 PM Menu by John Kuser

Betsy and I have been going to Key West for the last 15 years, and it's one of our favorite happy places. We just love the food and the atmosphere, which is very free-spirited, in the Keys. I think people go there to get away from the reality of the world, and just enjoy life to its fullest!

MENU INCLUDES: Conch fritters with remoulade sauce, blackened pink shrimp, Cuban sandwiches, fried grouper with jalapeno tartar sauce, mango coleslaw, cilantro lime rice, Key lime pie...and you can top it all off with a refreshing Rum Runner.

Octoberfest ZIPZ Dinner

October 17 | 6 PM Menu by Lynda Gilbert

It's time for October ZIPZ, so let's celebrate Octoberfest—it's a perfect pair-up! How about a little beer tasting to start the evening off on a good note, followed by some of everyone's favorite German cuisine.

MENU INCLUDES: Chicken and pork schnitzel, sauerkraut and bratwurst, and German potato salad. For dessert, we'll get lost in some delicious black forest cake! And what would an Octoberfest meal be without perhaps a bit of beer to wash down all that great food?

Finally—A Cooler Time for Your Wellness Routine!

The end of summer can seem like a disheartening time of year, but there's something about the cool, crisp air that can breathe some new life into your usual wellness routine. Here are a few ways to do that:

Take advantage of the great outdoors! Without the heat and humidity, outdoor workouts become much more comfortable, and after a busy summer, many of us are ready to get back to some sort of fitness routine. Plus, getting started now can help you generate enough momentum to make it through the upcoming winter season without losing the progress you've made. Try walking, hiking or biking to enjoy the benefits of exercising outside: increased level of happiness, more energy and focus, a stronger immune system and cleaner lungs!

Get back to the Club! When the weather is iffy, the Club can help you stay on track with a variety of opportunities. You can participate in one of the many fitness classes we offer throughout the week, including Yoga, swimming and spinning. Use the track or fitness center area, or even work with a personal trainer to make sure your workouts are safe and effective. I encourage you to try something new!

Get healthy with fall foods! Just because summer is over doesn't mean you need to avoid the produce section. In fact, fall brings a number of great choices to up the nutritional value of your meals while enjoying some of the great foods that are in season. Try these—pumpkin, apples and pecans.

Welcome to Our New Yoga Team:

Stephanie Lautz: Stephanie is a Vinyasa & Kundalini Teacher who began her yogic journey 15 years ago. Like the sunshine, she is warm and bright, easily empowering others. Steph has two 200 HR yoga teacher certificates, Vinyasa sequencing & Kundalini Kriya. From yin and restorative yoga to power yoga, her personal practice has led her to traditional practices of mantra and breathwork. Her classes encourage self-integrity and personal will, and are easily followed by excellent cues and paired with a curated playlist.

Stephanie Lautz

Her eagerness to help liberate and transform, coupled with her friendly personality, make for a great session. Try one of her classes and you'll be sure to feel Lautz of love, just as you are. Stephanie will be teaching the Tuesday 5:30 PM class.

Sarah Doering

Sarah Doering: Sarah received her yoga certification in Costa Rica in 2018. She loves teaching a mixture of different styles so you will leave feeling refreshed, renewed and relaxed. Sarah is also a Certified Reiki Master, so you'll be sure to get extra healing in every class. Sarah will be teaching Saturdays at 10 AM.

Rachel Keaveny: Rachel is certified through a 200 hour RYT through the Mukti Yoga School and teaches Vinyasa Flow. Rachel loves the moving meditation that Vinyasa brings to the body and mind, while also building heat in the body. She feels that the breath-to-movement connection is so powerful! In her own practice, yoga has been beneficial because of the positive effects it has had on her mental health, as well as the sense of peace and stillness to the mind. She finds it also improves flexibility and strength. She is so excited to be a part of The Toledo Club's yoga group, subbing when needed and helping members along in their own yoga journey!

Rachel Keaveny

Josie Williams

Josie Williams: She has been a yoga instructor for almost a year after graduating from Mukti Yoga School. Her style of yoga is for all levels. A slow flow yoga is what she teaches the most and she loves having newbies in the room, and all levels of experienced yogis. Whether you're brand new, or have done yoga for years, she would love to have you join her class when she's filling in on occasion.

1,000,000 STEPS IN 100 DAYS

September 5–December 13

fitness@toledoclub.org

A great way to keep from getting bored with your usual workout routine is to join the 1,000,000 Steps in 100 Days Challenge starting on Tuesday, September 5 and running until December 13. You would be surprised how a few changes in your daily routine can help you meet or exceed that goal. Try a few of these: walk when you're on the phone, get up and move during commercials, or use the restroom on a different floor. Please email me for more details and/or to register. Or you can sign up in the Fitness Center. This will motivate you to hit 10,000 steps per day, which is the CDC recommended amount for most adults. However, if a million steps seem overwhelming, please contact me and we can discuss a number that is a better fit for you. The person with the highest number of steps will win a fun prize at the end!

Ball Noir

Saturday, October 21 | 8 PM–Midnight

*An Eclectic Mix of Music
Hors d'oeuvres
Psychic Readings
Black Formalwear
Masquerade Masks Optional*

The fun of Halloween meets the elegance of a Ball. The Toledo Club's "Ball Noir" on October 21 will be unlike any party you've attended at the Club in the past, and truly unique to the area.

Halloween will be a little different at the Club this year. The same spooky décor that you've experienced in past few years will remain, and the children will still have their event (see below), but the adult party will have a new ambience and vibe.

This year for the adult party, gone are the flashing lights of a DJ booth, replaced with the spooky elegance of lit skulls and candelabras. It'll be a formal affair, so dress in black (a hint of color is acceptable to make your ensemble more appealing). From historical gowns to fantastical ensembles to modern formal wear. Masquerade masks will be permitted, after checking in.

Picture the Centennial Room looking like something from an 1860s gothic novel, with a little extra Halloween décor. An eclectic mix of classical music alternating with contemporary music will spill from the Musician's Gallery (aka the Overlook) to the dance floor below. The classical music will allow for ballroom-style dancing. Then there'll be a change of gears and you'll hear a little Old School, a bit of modern, a dash of hip-hop and of course fun songs like "Thriller" (it's Halloween, after all).

Chef will prepare a more elegant array of hors d'oeuvres than we've had for Halloween in the past, which is included in the ticket cost, and a cash bar will be available in the Red Room. Also, for a fee, a psychic reader will be on hand to perform private readings.

This unique event is open to the public, so you can bring your friends. Just make sure to have them register ahead of time through Eventbrite. Members are $25 per person, guests $30 per person, which must be paid in advance, as space is strictly limited.

Please make reservations by either calling Christina at 419-254-2980, using The Toledo Club app, or registering online on ToledoClub.org. Guests must pay through Eventbrite. –Eileen Eddy

BOO BASH

A TRULY MAGICAL VAMPIRICAL EXTRAVAGANZA

Saturday, October 21 | 11 AM–2 PM

Halloween is lurking around the corner! It's time to get spooky and make plans to come to The Toledo Club for Halloween fun. The kids' BOO-BASH will be Saturday, October 21, 11 AM–2 PM.

Trick or treat will be held in the Red Room, followed by our ghoulish gathering at the photo station. Games and prizes are in store as well.

A scary lunch will follow in the Centennial Room. Chef Sean is planning a frightfully fun menu of yummy, colorful foods that kids and adults alike will most certainly be "goblin" down!

To make the party complete, our favorite magician "Barnabas Collins" is back for the third year! He has a new show and is planning to perform a new unique and magical "Halloween Extravaganza." He'll have lots of tricks up his sleeve that you won't want to miss. See you soon! Boo!

Wine & Dine

Photos by KURT NIELSEN

The Club's Wine & Dine dinners always feature mouthwatering unique and classic dishes. A variety of wines are selected that pair wonderfully with the delicious dishes that Chef Sean prepares, like these shown from the June 28 Wine & Dine dinner.
