President's MESSAGE

Doug Kearns, President
419-842-7848 | dkearns@yarkauto.com

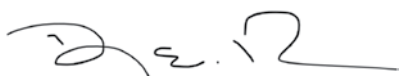

Dear Toledo Club Member,

Having just held the Club's annual meeting in the Red Room, I would like to again thank those members who attended the meeting. A lot of important updates were shared with those in attendance on the work the Board of Directors has been doing with Troon True Club Solutions and Signature Group to help the Club's management team provide better service and programming to our members. They're also helping us create a plan with membership for a sustainable path to the future. A Club-hosted turkey buffet in the FDR immediately followed the meeting, with Dr. Tom Brady playing the piano. As usually is the case, everyone that attended had a wonderful time.

Now I direct my attention to what is in my opinion the best part of the year at The Toledo Club: the holiday season! I cannot think of a better place to spend family holidays than the Club. I think this edition of Topics does a wonderful job of showing what a special place The Toledo Club is to create countless cherished family memories, just as our family has done over the years. On page six, you'll see a perfect example: a photo of me with our daughter Kelsey at age of 5 in my arms at the Club's Tea Dance. As I wipe a tear from my eye, there is memory after memory of our family truly making the Club our home away from home.

Starting with Thanksgiving and going all the way through to New Year's Eve, it's one great event after the next. And once the Club is magically transformed for the Parade of Trees, it's a winter wonderland. (Thank you, Parade of Trees Chair Lynda Gilbert, and everyone that donates a tree or holiday decoration for this special cause.) Please read through the great articles inside and get your calendar set for the season. RSVP early and often for what will be a fantastic holiday season at the Club. Who has it better than us? Nobody!

Happy Holidays to you and your family, and thank you for being a member of The Toledo Club.

Doug

Thank You TO THE CLUB

September 13, 2022

Dear Ed:

I have been a member of The Toledo Club for 40 years. It is hard to put into words the unparalleled experience my family had for Megan Eileen's Wedding Reception on June 4th. On a scale of 10, it was a 9.9, and I am still looking for the .1.

First, the physical plant was in first-class condition. The grounds had impeccable plants and flowers. The motor entrance was pristine. The marble steps had been cleaned and were immaculate. On the third floor, the floors in the hallway and dining room were shining brilliantly.

The presentation of the food and bar service was executed flawlessly. Keith Rasnake and Elayne Harrison were constantly on the move, and stayed late into the evening.

It was Megan Eileen's dream to have her wedding reception at The Toledo Club. Some young women dream their lives, while others live their dreams. My daughter lived her dream on June 4, 2022. It was a dream come true.

Sincerely,

Cormac B. DeLaney

THE TOLEDO CLUB'S Tea Dance

Our Longest-Running Traditional Event

BY EILEEN EDDY

Tea Dance events have a very long history. At The Toledo Club, our annual Tea Dance holds the honor of being the longest continually held Club event. It is a must-do holiday tradition for many generations of Club members and their families. If it's not already a tradition for you and your family, consider starting the tradition this holiday season.

*M*any families, some multi-generational, have enjoyed The Toledo Club's Tea Dance event for years. Sometimes three or more generations attend at the same time, with others bringing their children as their parents had done before. Either way, it makes for wonderful memories of time spent together enjoying the joy of the season and the beauty of the Club.

I decided it would be wise to reach out to Santa to make sure he would be at the Tea Dance this year, and to get his take on the event. He assured me that the Tea Dance is on his calendar as always. When asked his opinion of the event, he wrote back: "The Toledo Club Tea Dance is rooted deep in the Club's history. One can easily trace this tradition back to the turn of the 20th century. The Toledo Club Tea Dance is something Santa looks forward to every year. Not just to visit the festively decorated trees throughout the Club, but to also meet with the children of all ages (there is a little bit of child in all of us) and welcome in the holidays. Be sure to have your list ready!" It was signed "Ho Ho Ho, Santa." So, as you can see, this tradition has been around for a very, very long time.

Be sure to make note of what Santa said, and get your list ready! Also make your reservations early so that you can be sure to join in the tradition, as it has been known to sell out quickly in the past. The event will take place Saturday, December 17, with festivities starting at 4:30 PM. Upon arrival, a member of the United States Marine Corps will greet you, and will be collecting donations of books for Toys for Tots. Santa, as promised, will be in the Red Room, ready to have photos taken with the kids, and to hear their wishes for what they would like to see appear under their tree on Christmas Eve. Hors d'oeuvres will be served, and the bar will be open for beverages. The children can take part in a craft project as well. Then we'll move up to the Founders Dining Room for dinner. There, a delicious buffet with adult food selections awaits, as well as a buffet of kid-friendly options. “Roy Rogers” and “Shirley Temple” cocktails will be available for old and young alike. And to top the night off—dancing, of course. A DJ will be ready to go in the Centennial Room so that everyone can dance the night away. A fun filled night for everyone!

One facet of the Tea Dance that must not be overlooked is the sharing aspect of the event. Bringing something to ensure that others have something for Christmas is a large part of The Toledo Club Tea Dance tradition. It’s just as important as the fun and food, maybe more so. As I mentioned, we will have a member of the Marine Corps on hand collecting books for the Toys for Tots drive. (This year, the gift focus is on books, but new unwrapped toys would be welcome, too.) The reason for the focus on books lies in the numbers that I learned from the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Foundation. Sadly, in the United States, 1 in 4 children grow up without learning how to read. An astounding 61 percent of families living in poverty do not have children’s books in their homes. Only 1 book for every 300 children exists in low-income neighborhoods. These are terribly sobering numbers. Because of this, a gift of a child-appropriate book (or books) would be a wonderful thing to share. My first thought was of bringing books for young children, but please also think about titles that would be good for the older children as well, such as for tweens and teens. Let’s try to be part of the movement to make a big difference in the literacy of our youth. I think that your kids will enjoy picking out tomes for other children to read—I know I’m looking forward to it. Nancy Drew and the Hardy Boys, here I come.

Here’s some additional history about the Club’s Tea Dance. When I learned that it holds the honor of being the Club’s longest-running event, I set out to do a bit of digging. I wanted to see just how long the event has taken place at the Club, and hear tales from a few families that have attended the Tea Dance year after year. As noted earlier, Santa states that the tradition dates back to the turn of the 20th century. While communicating with some of our members, I found that a few have attended this particular event for over four decades. Some of our multi-generational members shared their memories.

Bring a book or two to this year’s Tea Dance as a donation to the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Foundation.

I would also like to give you a little history of the affair known as the tea dance itself, also known as Thé Dansant, when it was later embraced by the French and Monaco. It originated in England in the 18th century. Originally a pastime of the wealthy, it consisted of the taking of tea at midday, with some theatrical entertainment followed by dancing. It would usually take place in an elegant garden during the spring or summer.

Further into the 19th century it moved to both later in the day and later in the year, and indoors. It became an autumnal soiree where food was served—much more like afternoon tea as we know it today, but the attendees would also dance the afternoon away. It was mainly aristocratic families that took part, and they soon started to make it part of the courtship game. Young people could dance and mingle while under the watchful eyes of the elders. It was much like a ball, but a bit less

Jim Nooney wrote, “Carole and I attended the Tea Dance with our then-young children (two sons and a daughter) on a number of occasions 40+ years ago. It was always a very elegant, special occasion, and a wonderful introductory example to young people of the etiquette, dress and grandeur of a formal event.”

Another place where I was able to glean some information was from an article written by Shirley Levy in 2010. She writes about the occasion being a multi-generational event for Ann and Patrick Hylant. “I don’t think our family has missed a Christmas Tea Dance in at least 33 years,” said Ann. “Our parents were the original members, so we went before we were even members. Then our kids went with their grandparents and us, and now they’re going with their own kids. It’s always been a three-generation occasion. Our seven grandchildren have been going to the Tea Dance since they were infants.” Also, Laurie Hylant made mention of the day when they actually used dance cards. “It used to be genteel, and they always had their best manners on display. Now there’s a disc jockey and the kids doing wild dances.” (I did hear from the chairs of the event; maybe the dance cards could make a return someday.) Some families even planned their travel arrangements around the Tea Dance. They refused to miss it, sighting that it has always been a major part of their holiday celebrations. Some of the current families of the Club have attended the Tea Dance for over 45 years.

You may be wondering why it’s been a tradition for such a long time, why many families love it so much, and what makes it so special. Simple. It’s everything we love about the holidays: the joy of giving, enjoying good food and drink, music and dancing, and the sparkle and splendor of the Club. And Santa is there—need I say more? It’s been a December tradition for decades; a time for children to dress up in their finest holiday attire and learn about giving and sharing with others.

formal, and took place in the safer daylight hours. It usually ran from about 4 until 7 PM, which was probably considered a good choice for the elders that wanted to be safely home in bed at an early hour. By that time, the event had come to America, where it gained popularity with wealthy families in the East. It became very fashionable in the Hamptons, Ogunquit and other high-end communities. At this time, they served elegant ices, champagne, finger food, and of course tea. Books from the Victorian era gave detailed instructions on giving a proper tea dance. When it came to dancing, the waltz, being the most popular of the dances at the time, was often performed.

Flash forward to the roaring twenties, and the event was moved to the evening. Mainly attended by the younger generation, the waltz was replaced with the fox trot and tango. The food became more glorious, a live orchestra provided the music, and very little of the "tea" that was consumed was actually tea as we know it, if you get my meaning. At that time, all the top clubs, private and public, hosted tea dances. I wonder if our 1920s tea dances were like this, eventually morphing into the family-friendly event we know today.

Another interesting thing about the history of the tea dance is that it has been included in many pieces of literature, movies and television. "Downton Abbey" included a Tea Dance scene. The musical No, No, Nannette, which was written in 1925, made the song "Tea for Two" famous. The song was performed during a scene in which the characters were supposed to be attending a Tea Dance in New Jersey.

Today the events are still popular throughout the United Kingdom, especially Scotland. They usually take place during winter festivals and are often outdoors (the Scots are a hearty bunch). Also in recent years there has been the trend of trying to break the world record for how many people are dancing at one time. A bit of a battle for the record has taken place between England and Scotland in recent years. In 2005, England set a record with 195 dancers at Trafalgar Square, and in 2008, Glasgow broke their record when a winter festival had 408 dancers. London then broke the Glasgow record in mid-2010 with 507 dancers, but Glasgow reclaimed the title later that year with 4,000 dancers. No one has topped their record since.

Back to our event at The Toledo Club on December 17—it has the prospect of being a wonderful time for families to share quality time, and to forge beautiful memories. An opportunity for children to learn the joy of sharing and giving. And a time when everyone can enjoy dressing in their holiday finery and enjoy the elegance of the Club, and the magic of the season. Join us! 🎄

A Holiday Tradition OF OUR OWN

This season is The Toledo Club's 15th annual Parade of Trees! Through the years, it has become a long-standing custom, not only for our members and guests, but for the entire Toledo community. We're proud to host this beautiful event each year. It has become the perfect segue for heralding in the holidays that so many look forward to.

Generous donors help us deck our halls with donated and decorated trees and wreaths. Each entry has a chosen theme and is up for auction. The entries are on display throughout the entire month of December.

Every year this special venue brings an all-new magical splendor to every floor. Adults and children of all ages are excited to tour the Club, viewing all the different themes on parade. It's not difficult to claim a favorite! The highest bidder can rest assured that they could win their favorite on New Year's Eve.

We will host our second annual Tree Lighting and Reception, complimentary for our generous donors. The invitation is extended to our members, their families and friends, too. We will count down to the moment when the thousands of lights, from our 45-plus entries, come alive at once. Santa will be our special tree-lighting guest. We hope you will, too.

Chef Sean is planning a holiday dinner buffet, new this year, for anyone who would like to stay for dinner. Non-members and guests will be able to use cash or a credit card that evening.

We're proud that our Parade of Trees has become such a grand charitable event. The time, generosity and proceeds that our donors designate each year to the many grateful charities is tremendous! Last year alone, we raised almost $14,000. Thank you!

See you in December at Parade of Trees! 🎄

NEW YEAR'S EVE GALA

Midnight

What is it they say, third time's a charm? We can truly say that about our premier New Year's event, as the last two years saw the event canceled due to COVID. But nothing's going to stop our "Countdown to Midnight" this year!

Our Spectacular Gala Party begins at 6 PM, with cocktails and an array of lovely hors d'oeuvres served in the main lobby, followed by Chef Sean's five-course wine-pairing dinner in the FDR. This very special evening will also include dancing and fabulous music from Jeff McDonald and his Swingmania Band. Afterward, coffees and a festive array of holiday goodies will be available to soothe your seasonal sweet tooth. Black tie is welcome, and so are your guests! Chairperson Lynda Gilbert and her committee, along with Honorary Chairs Fred and Nita Harrington promise a memorable Gala evening.

The Club is also offering a Late Night After Party Celebration, starting at 9:30 PM. Chairs Brandon Rodriguez and Kay Bolles have planned quite the party to ring in the new year. Find your way to the Centennial Room and dance the rest of the year away with the rockin' sounds of your favorite DJ tunes. Enjoy late-night hors d'oeuvres and a champagne toast. Hats, noisemakers and a balloon drop are included. Come make it a Happy New Year!

Here's a recap of all the details:

Eddie Charlton

16 golfers made the journey 50 minutes north to Dearborn for this year's Ryder Cup event. TPC Michigan is a tough course, with water, fescue and out-of-bounds a plenty. The front nine format was pairs best ball, meaning the lowest score of the pair counted in a match play format. The back nine finished with the traditional 1-on-1 match play. All of the matchups were close, and the event went down to the wire. Ryan Miller, Chris Bosinger and Andy Ranazzi played solidly to notch up points for Team USA while Chad Bolles, Emma Charlton and Eddie Charlton did their best to stop the bleeding for team Europe. Ultimately it wasn't to be for Team, Europe as the US team ran away victorious 7-5 on home soil. Thanks everyone for taking part!

The teams:

Team Europe	5	vs.	7	Team USA
Dave Navarre Eddie Charlton				Chris Bosinger Steve Turner
Mike Matlock Matt Shock				Luke Russo Kevin Carr
Aubry Hornsby Emma Charlton				Ryan Miller Kyle Dodd
Denny Lyle Chad Bolles				Andy Ranazzi Tim Kalucki

Fall Fest Wrap-Up

This year's Toledo Club Fall Fest in Partnership with Family House was a great success. We had over 110 participants including 30+ NEWBIES, which is fantastic. For those not familiar with the NEWBIE division, it's aimed at non-Toledo Club members that have never played squash before. We then teach them the basics and get them ready to battle it out on the courts. The winner of the Men's and Ladies Divisions wins a one-year membership to the Club. This fantastic idea came from squash player and board member Chad Bolles. Congratulations to this year's NEWBIE Champions and Welcome to the Club – Andrew Jamieson and Lauren Rumbach.

Finals Results :

NEWBIE Womens - Lauren Rumbach bt. Kristina DeMarco 3-0

NEWBIE Mens - Andrew Jamieson bt. Mac Mc Nerney 3-0

Pro Invitational Draw – Eddie Charlton bt. Juan Gomez 3-0

Womens Division – Caitlin McAnall bt. Rachael Betz 3-1

A Division – Raghav Rao bt. Drew Snell 3-1

B Division – Tony Doblus-Madrid bt. John Skeldon 3-1

C Division – Brian Kurtz bt. Sarah Berling 3-1

D Division – Andrew Watson bt. Tim Effler 3-0

50+ Division – John Leslie bt. Ian Andrews 3-0

60+ Division – Bruce Schoenberger bt. Tim Schmidt W/O

Ladies Match vs Columbus

On Saturday, September 10, we hosted a group of ladies from the Athletic Club of Columbus for some fun match play with our Toledo Club squash ladies. Both teams used this as a tune-up for the Howe Cup (a female-only squash event in Philadelphia), scheduled for November. The Toledo Club ladies played great and proved too strong for our guests. Nevertheless, fun was had by all, and I'm sure there will be a return trip in the cards sometime this season. Thanks to all the ladies that played: Laura Berling, Laurie Leslie, Lori Mack, Renee Stack, Rachael Betz, Deb Schmidt, Sarah Berling, Sandra Irvine and Amy Shock.

David Cameron and Chuck Schaub invite you to a specially-themed

Here’s how three of our Toledo Club members use their Club:

Brandon Rodriguez

“ I’ve been a member of The Toledo Club for seven years now. In fact, I was the youngest individual member the Club had when I joined at age 19. I remember coming to the Club as a college student, looking for a bartending job. And instead of leaving with a job application, Russ Wazniak made sure I left with a membership application. After seven years of enjoying the Club, I really had only used the Athletic department for the fitness center. Fast-forward to fall 2021 when my friend Laura Berling drug me, almost literally, down to the squash courts. After meeting Eddie, I joined the winter 2021–2022 squash league and have been hooked ever since.

Being involved in the Athletic area (particularly the squash area) has been one of the biggest gifts the Club has given me. You won’t meet nicer people—whether you’re hitting the ball alone or playing with someone more experienced, you’ll feel welcomed.

I’m now on the social and membership committees, and participate in any event I can get my hands on, from social events like ZIPZ to squash functions. No matter what your niche is, you’ll find somewhere to fit in at The Toledo Club. I can happily say I’ve met some of my best friends by being involved at “our Club!” ” “ Fazal and I have been members for almost eight years, but my involvement truly began when Eddie and Emma arrived. They’ve worked hard to make the Athletics area even more family-friendly. Now my entire family enjoys playing squash! The Club’s junior squash program has provided us the opportunity to mingle with other parents, many who have become great friends. We’ve played, dined and traveled together for the junior squash league matches, and it’s all incredibly fun!

Wajeeha Zaidi

The Toledo Club offers our whole family great opportunities to get involved. I now enjoy not just squash, but love working out at the gym regularly with trainers Lynette and Traci. I also enjoy athletic classes, including yoga, spin and circuit. In winter, my family enjoys the golf simulator. Our daughters joined the swim team, and had a great experience with Melissa. She’s an excellent instructor and does an amazing job with the kids. After a family activity, we look forward to dining at the Tavern, where the staff is very friendly and always provides exceptional service.

I’ve stepped out of my comfort zone by participating in many Club activities. Through attending the Club’s events and parties, I’ve been able to make many new friends. ”

Jude Aubry

“ I joined The Toledo Club in May of 1978 and became very active with a workout group that started their day at 5 or 5:30 AM. While the number of 5 AM participants is a little smaller now, we’re still just as loyal to each other and to the Club. This past 20 years we also formed a breakfast group that meets at the Club the first Friday of every month. We care enough about each other that if anyone misses their regular workout, you hear from someone wondering if you’re okay. I think that’s real love among a group of guys. Many of us are now in our 60s, 70s and even 80s, and we all love the Club that brought us together.

I have been very pleased with all the personal trainers and spinning instructors I’ve had over the years. It’s a credit to the management that we have such a great staff.

I have so many vivid memories of the Easters, Thanksgivings, Christmases, and other special occasions that my family have enjoyed. And I love knowing that the Board and the management are working hard to keep The Toledo Club going and growing for all the members and their families. ”

Keep Up Your Workouts Through the Holidays

Do you feel like the chaos of the holidays leaves you too tired or with too little time to exercise and stay fit? Try these few suggestions to help you stop the crazy cycle of detraining at the end of the year and having to recondition at the beginning of a new year:

- Exercise in the morning. You're more likely to do it! Even if that means setting your alarm 30 minutes earlier. And an extra bonus: you are more likely to make good nutritional choices for the rest of the day if you work out first thing.
- Schedule your exercise by putting it on the calendar. This helps you remember the importance of it, and again, you are more likely to do it.
- Make exercise a family activity. A walk in a winter wonderland or actively building a snowman counts toward being active and burns calories!
- Bring a healthy dish to the holiday potluck, visit the people not the food at parties, and don't feel guilty if you do overindulge. Just make a healthy choice for your next meal.

The Big Ugly Returns in 2023!

After the holiday parties and potlucks are done, the Fitness Department will be kicking off 2023 with The Big Ugly, an 8-week challenge to get back on track and lose at least 5% of your body weight. In addition, the Little Ugly, which challenges members to maintain their weight within three pounds of their weigh-in weight, is back by popular demand. With almost 200 lbs. lost in 2022 by dedicated members in eight weeks, and a fun party to celebrate at the end, this is a challenge you will not want to miss. And, the biggest male and female loser will each receive a $100 credit to spend at the Club! Registration starts December 19 with weigh-ins/assessments occurring the week of January 2. Keep an eye out for more information to follow.

BOO-CAMP KICKED OFF HALLOWEEK

Boo-Camp, the kickoff to Halloweek at the Club, was a spooktacular smash! The participating goblins endured Hard-Corpse Cardio, Strength-Till-You-Scream, and Creep-It-Real Yoga. As seen below, all had a scary good time!

Early Gift Ideas

Don't forget that personal training sessions or a massage gift certificate are great Christmas gifts or stocking stuffers!

I wish you and yours a merry and bright holiday season! Be active, be healthy, be happy.

30 DAYS of PLANKS and THANKS!

CHOOSE A 2-MINUTE OR 3-MINUTE PLANK CHALLENGE

GET A SPECIAL GIFT AT THE BEGINNING OF THE CHALLENGE. SIGN UP NOW!

* You can register after November 1 — just complete your Challenge by November 30!

Here's another way to finish the year strong — sign up for our Planksgiving Challenge starting November 1. The Planksgiving Challenge: 30 Days of Planks and Thanks only takes a few minutes each day and is a great way to remind yourself all of the things you have to be grateful for. While increasing the time you hold an elbow plank throughout the month with either a 2-minute or 3-minute goal, you'll increase core strength while improving your posture and feelings of gratitude. We will hold this year's Plank-Off on Friday, November 25 on the squash courts right after the USA / England World Cup Squash Challenge. You can register at fitness@toledoclub.org or by signing the registration sheet in the fitness center. When you register, you'll receive a small gift to use during the Challenge, so please sign up right away!
